General Organic And Biochemistry Lab Manual Answers
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with ink, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime with his ear bandaged and his face disfigured by ink. He has been kept out of school that afternoon and evening and is actually in a good mood. Tom's aunt is satisfied, but Tom is not. He has learned the hard way and vows never to do anything like that again. Tom has learned to obey his aunt.

Tom goes out of the house in the evening to look for adventure. He finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. He passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of muzzle. Aunt Polly agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
