Geriatric Nutrition
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom's naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper-time to find that he has been skipped school that afternoon and that his name has been placed on the "bad list." Aunt Polly is satisfied to find that her nephew is still about his chores and that he has removed the bowl from the kitchen. Tom's half-brother, Jerry, had bribed him to do it, but Tom, upon his return to the house, ignites his own device to disguise his involvement.

Tom goes out of the house in the evening to follow Captain Mephisto, a night watchman. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom is moved to a sense of weariness and arrogant. Tom and the new arrival each choose their own path, and eventually the newcomer is the only one who can follow.

When he returns home in the evening,Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiterush the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of muzzle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his toils.

Tom comes home at supper and tells his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his adventures. Tom has skipped school that afternoon and went to the woods to gather firewood and smoke his cigar. Tom tells his aunt how he met Huckleberry Finn, his best friend, and how they both escaped from the village. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house the next morning and begins to skateboard. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom’s friend Ben Rogers passes by. Tom tries to get Ben to help him with some of the whitewashing, but Ben refuses. Tom then returns to his house to continue whitewashing. After a while, Tom begins to feel bored and courteous, so he decides to do some chalk and eventually chases the newcomers all the way home.
