Information Technology Solutions For Healthcare Health Informatics
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scowling the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom crosses home at supper and tell his mother about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly is told that Tom has been skipped school that afternoon and went out to the woods. She is angry and removes the boy's collar, showing that his collar is still worn from his last skipping. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom and the new arrival of Mark Twain in town is shared and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of mustard. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
