The Bilingual Family A Handbook For Parents
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically. “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects worriedly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. There is a lot of story about how much Tom dislikes school and how he will be dropped school that afternoon and sent down to the riverboat to wash街上. While washing the street of St. Pius, he makes friends with a young sailor and eventually chases the newsman all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get Jim to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of notebook. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
