The Journey Surviving Breast Cancer And Managing Lymphedema
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scowling the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whapping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects warily on Tom's mischievousness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. His mother has been at the church and shows Tom that his collar is still ajar from the morning. While Tom is eating, Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom's half brother, Ben Brown, has been caught running away from school and declared incorrigible. Tom has warned himself to disguise his guilt.

Tom goes out of the house to get some fresh whiting. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival, Benj, look upon and eventually choose the newcomer as the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of knuckle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his toil.

Tom comes home at supper-time. His clothes are torn and dirty, his hair is disheveled, and he has a故事 about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks about Tom’s education. Tom tells her he has skipped school that afternoon and went instead to the woods to build a fort. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house into the streets of St. Petersburg. The air is fresh and warm. Tom’s mind wanders and he imagines himself as a governor and eventually claims the newcomers all the way home.
